

FAIR PROCESSING AND PRIVACY NOTICE

For patients of Irnham Lodge Surgery, Minehead

The law determines how organisations can use the personal information they collect. This is underpinned by the Common Law Duty of Confidentiality together with legislation we must comply with including:

- Data Protection Act 1998
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Health and Social Care Act 2012

Irnham Lodge Surgery holds and uses the personal and confidential information of its patients for a number of purposes. This notice sets out in general terms a summary of the type of information we hold about you, what we use it for and also who we may share your information with.

WHAT INFORMATION DO WE HOLD?

Irnham Lodge Surgery collects personal confidential information about you. This information may include, but is not limited to:

- Your name, address, telephone number, date of birth and next of kin
- Appointment details, associated admissions
- Correspondence, notes and reports
- Investigations and test results

WHAT DO WE USE THIS INFORMATION FOR?

The practice uses this information for the following reasons:

- to help inform the decisions that we make about your care
- to ensure that your treatment is safe and effective, including any advice that may be provided as part of your care
- to help us work effectively with other organisations who may also be involved in your care

HOW DO WE KEEP INFORMATION SECURE?

Irnham Lodge Surgery has a range of security measures in place to ensure that your information is held, and where appropriate, shared in a secure way. Your patient record will only be accessed by those members of practice staff who are authorised to do so.

If you have any concerns about the way we handle your information, please speak to a member of the practice staff.

FAIR PROCESSING AND PRIVACY NOTICE

For patients of Irnham Lodge Surgery, Minehead

WHO DO WE SHARE INFORMATION WITH AND WHY?

Irnham Lodge Surgery may share information held about you with other organisations to support:

For patient care (identifiable information):

- to promote continuity of care by sharing your information with other professionals involved in your care
- to promote safe care by sharing your information with other health care professionals who might be involved in your care such as emergency departments and out of hours doctor services

For planning and assurance (information in anonymised format which does not include information from the patient written notes):

- to help protect the general health of the public
- to manage and plan services for the future
- to review the quality of care provided by the practice to ensure it remains effective
- to help our staff review the care that is provided to ensure it is of the highest standard and to enable the continual improvement of care
- to comply with a legal obligation

Organisations with which information is routinely shared with for the reasons set out above include but are not limited to:

For patient care:

- Local hospitals
- Emergency and out of hours services

For planning and assurance:

- NHS England
- Somerset Clinical Commissioning Group
- Somerset County Council – Public Health

OPTING OUT AND FURTHER INFORMATION

All patients have the right to opt out of allowing their personal information to be shared with other healthcare organisations. If you wish to do this, please speak to a member of the practice staff.

For more detailed information about your rights and our responsibilities in respect of data protection, we have a number of information leaflets that are available in our waiting areas and reception, as well as further resources on our website. Easy read format as well as information in other languages is available upon request.